Description

This superb Napoleon III-era walnut coat rack, dating from the late 19th century, restored in our workshop and in perfect conditionstands out for its elegance and the richness of its carved decoration. It features a large central mirror framed by finely carved moldings, surrounded by molded panels and fluted columns. The upper section is adorned with a magnificent frieze carved with plant motifs, while the brass coat hooks add an authentic and refined touch. It also features a practical shelf with a drawer, highlighted by beautiful carvings, as well as a curved base resting on an ornate base. The beautiful, warm patina of the walnut highlights the wood's grain and underscores the quality of its craftsmanship. This characterful coat rack, both decorative and functional, will add plenty of
