Description

A stunning decorative Gien earthenware dish from the Renaissance collection, featuring a rich polychrome design inspired by Italian Renaissance grotesques.With a scalloped shape, this platter is adorned with a refined composition of fantastical creatures, winged putti, and stylized plant motifs, in a harmonious blend of yellow, blue, ochre, and black.The center is adorned with a narrative medallion surrounded by richly detailed ornamentation. An elegant yellow frieze frames the rim, while the two side handles, accented in blue, highlight the piece's distinctive silhouette.The richness of the decoration and the finesse of the craftsmanship make this platter a distinctive piece, ideal for lovers of French earthenware and the decorative arts. It will look perfect on a console table, a sideboard, or in a
