PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Pair Of Lidded Blue Ceramic Vases By Paul Milet In Sèvres

980 EUR

Signature : Paul Milet (1870-1950)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Ceramic

Height : 34

Description

Paul MILET (1870-1950)Sèvres, circa 1925.Pair of lidded vases in glazed ceramic with a gradient of mottled blue,Ovoid in shape with cut sides,PM Sèvres stamp within a dotted circle, and "POP" model mark. In perfect condition.Height: 34 cm.Paul Milet was the son of ceramist Félix Optat Milet (1838-1911). After training at the Sèvres Manufactory's laboratory, he became a chemist and worked at the factory founded by his father in 1866 at 8 Rue Troyon in Sèvres, just a stone's throw from the Manufactory.Beginning in 1890, he gradually took over from his father. Like his father, he continued to benefit from the collaboration of artists from the Sèvres National Ceramics Manufactory.In 1899, he married Marie-Louise Gibert (known as Céline), whose brother Paul held a position as director in Paris at

Dealer

Galerie des Victoires
Antiques, Clocks, Furnitures
Mobile : 06 10 14 84 97

Sur rendez-vous et salons ou évènements spécialisés
Paris 75002

Haviland, the famous Limoges porcelain manufacturer.Paul Milet worked with his father, Optat Milet, until the latter's death in 1911, and then with his son Henri, a ceramics engineer, who was appointed director of the factory in 1931--a position that did not prevent father and son from continuing to work closely together.