Description

Green opaline box with gold decoration set under glass - Charles X period, circa 1830-1840A charming round green opaline box, adorned with a gilded metal frame featuring a design of foliage scrolls and small flowers, in the style of the first half of the 19th century.The hinged lid is adorned with a polychrome glass-mounted scene depicting a lively view of an imposing public building with a monumental façade, set against a vast square filled with people, horsemen, and horse-drawn carriages. The delicacy of this small scene contrasts pleasantly with the luminous green of the opaline and the richness of the metal decoration.Condition: Opaline in good condition. Note: there is a crack in the glass-mounted image, visible in the photographs. Some signs of age on the gilded mount.Period: Circa
