Description

An interesting dynamic study of horsemen, in red chalk. Two figures shown in three-quarter view from behind in the foreground. Travelers. In the upper left, the same two figures seen from behind, and on the right, a study of a merchant walking downwind and holding his hat. A lovely sheet in good condition, This drawing has been attributed to the circle of Adam François van der Meulen, 1632-1690. Flemish School. Gilded wooden frame, in the 18th-century style, circa 1960-70.
