PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

A Young Woman From Vannes With An Umbrella - Hb Quimper - Henriette Porson - Brittany

480 EUR

Signature : Henriette Porson

Period : 20th century

Condition : Restauré

Material : Earthenware

Height : 18,5 cm

Description

Polychrome stoneware, circa 1930.Restoration to the head.Henriette Porson (1874 - 1963):After studying at the École des Beaux-Arts in Nantes, Henriette Porson enrolled at the Académie Julian in Paris, where she took painting classes in Jean-Paul Laurens' studio and sculpture classes at the Atelier Royer. From 1906 to 1909, she exhibited at the Salon des Artistes Français, where she received awards on several occasions and eventually became a member. In 1912, she founded a course in drawing, painting, and decorative arts in Nantes. As part of the Breton artistic group, she exhibited her works at the Galerie Mignon-Massart in Nantes.Her collaboration with the HB Manufactory began in the 1930s. She presented a "small seated Arab boy" at the 1931 Colonial Exhibition, which was

Dealer

Bretagne Ancienne
Specialize in breton art : painting, ceramic, folk art
Tel : 02 40 15 63 30
Mobile : 06 20 74 90 39

21, rue de saillé
Guérande 44350

awarded a silver medal. In 1947, she participated, alongside the HB Manufactory, in the sacred art exhibition in Nantes. The encyclopedia of Quimper ceramics lists approximately 16 pieces produced by HB. Her studio in Nantes was destroyed by bombing in 1943. The Musée des Ducs de Bretagne in Nantes houses a collection of this artist's works: plaster casts, charcoal drawings, earthenware, and more...