Description

A remarkable 19th-century French tapestry, in the style of Aubusson tapestries, bearing a signature associated with the name A. Bordovach.The composition features an elegant central medallion animated by animal scenes--notably hunting dogs--surrounded by a rich decoration of foliage, floral motifs, and decorative scenes. Its harmonious color palette, blending shades of brown, ochre, burgundy, cream, and blue, lends it a particularly refined visual presence.With its generous dimensions, rich decoration, and elegant composition, this tapestry is a piece of character, ideal for enhancing a large living room, a prestigious residence, or a classic and refined interior.The name A. Bordovach also appears in auction listings related to the Aubusson manufactory, which adds further interest for
