Description

also known as "Pagode," made of black and "gold" melamine, decorated on one side with a double border framing a scene of a wooded lakeside landscape filled with flowers and ducks. It rests on a stylized black lacquered wooden base. Trapezoidal lampshade made of fabric with a gold lining, the edges adorned with an "antique gold" trim. "Gold"-colored metal connecting pieces. Presumably a 1980s edition. Base dimensions: height to socket 38.5 cm / width 22.2 cm / depth 11.2 cm. Lampshade dimensions: height 30 cm / length 45.5 cm / width 33.5 cm. Total height: 66.5 cm. This Asian-inspired lamp is commonly attributed to Maison Le Dauphin or associated with the designs of Jean-Claude Mahey (Maison Roméo, Paris). Production of this model began in the 1970s.
