Description

Extremely rare Nîmes-style pitcher/coffee pot in solid silver from the Louis XVI period, resting on three hoof-shaped feet. Pear-shaped body with a side handle in blackened wood (small chip on the tip). Engraved with "X.C." on the underside. Hallmarks for MONTPELLIER 1781-89, Common Workshop Hallmark for NÎMES 1781 (date letter "A") and Master Goldsmith Louis II's MASTER hallmark, awarded in 1759. Extremely rare Nîmes pitcher in very good condition and remarkably hallmarked; additionally, it has been cleaned by our silversmith and features a beautiful patina and minor scratches from normal use. For the discerning collector...Please disregard any reflections in the photos.Height: 18 cmWeight: 422 grams
