PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

The God Harpocrates. Ptolemaic Egypt.

2 900 EUR

Signature : Epoque Ptolémaïque 323-30 avant J.C

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Stone

Length : 5 cms

Width : 5 cms

Height : 9 cms

Description

This finely crafted sculpture represents the upper portion of the god Harpocrates, shown with his right index finger raised to his mouth. He wears a tripartite wig surmounted by a composite crown, and features an uraeus as well as the braided sidelock of youth. From a French collection, most likely dating to before 1980. Carved from steatite, the piece possesses a beautiful amber-toned patina.

Dealer

Galerie Franck Accart

Paintings, drawings, objects of curiosity and archaeology

Tel : 01 40 20 90 28

Mobile : 06 87 07 88 49

29 rue de Richelieu

Paris 75001