Description

A beautiful antique Louis XVI-style fireplace, known as a "half-moon" due to the rounded corners of its mantel and the half-moon shape of its legs, it dates from the late 19th century and was crafted from elegant, understated Bleu Turquin marble, adorned with bronze accents featuring their original gilding and patina, The fireplace features its original hearth plate with Maentre cabochons, as well as a beautiful carved cast-iron surround and a three-panel curtain. It is in good condition and is currently being cleaned and restored in our workshops. Coming soon to our showroom
