Description

An elegant pair of garden tables from the second half of the 19th century, featuring a refined circular white marble top with a exquisite central polychrome inlay depicting a floral motif. The minimalist wrought-iron frame, with its light and slender lines, highlights the richness of the marble top, creating a composition of great aesthetic balance.The tabletop is embellished with a rosette crafted from polychrome marbles--in shades of yellow, red, and black--framed by a dark green marble band that underscores its elegance. The quality of the craftsmanship and the meticulous workmanship evoke the finest Italian decorative pieces designed for winter gardens, terraces, and stately homes.Thanks to their harmonious proportions and understated elegance, these tables fit
