Copper Alloy Dagger Blade--probably From Cyprus, Bronze Age

340 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Copper alloy dagger blade--Probably Cyprus, Bronze AgeDouble-edged copper alloy blade with a short tang. Two rivet holes at the base of the blade and one near the tang. Sold mounted on a base.This type of blade is found primarily in Cyprus during the 2nd millennium BCE. Acquired at auction on the French art market; unfortunately, no provenance is available.Base height: 21 gBlade height: 18 cmWeight with base: 124 g

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu
Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120