Baccarat "chardon" Cone-shaped Vase With Purple And Gold Thistle Decor, Circa 1890

1 350 EUR

Signature : BACCARAT

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Description

Baccarat - "Chardon" Trumpet Vase with Acid-Etched and Gilded Decoration - Late 19th centuryAn elegant Baccarat conical vase from the late 19th century, featuring a design of purple thistles created using acid etching and accented with gilding.Its slender silhouette, with pronounced panels and a flared neck, highlights the finely drawn botanical design. The thistle flowers and leaves stand out against a light, delicately textured background. The gilded highlights accentuate the details of the foliage and the rim of the neck, creating beautiful contrasts throughout the piece.The vase rests on a square, stepped bronze base, which emphasizes the elegance of its proportions.It bears the Baccarat hallmark as well as the number "3" beneath the base.A beautiful decorative piece, whose

Dealer

Leleu Antiquités
Généraliste
Mobile : 0607415540

Varreddes 77910

naturalistic motif and rich finishes attest to the refinement of late 19th-century glassmaking.Period: late 19th century.Total height: approximately 32.5 cm.Condition: good overall condition