Description

We are offering this splendid pair of Italian nightstands, which possess a timeless, antique charm--perfect for enhancing any bedroom. Dating back to the early 19th century, they display the stylistic and structural characteristics typical of the opulent Empire period.Crafted from solid walnut, their lines are clean and simple, free of excessive ornamentation. On the front, two decorative columns--a hallmark of the Empire style--create a striking visual accent. These columns are adorned with small, finely chiseled gilded bronze capitals, which have acquired a natural, aged patina. In terms of functionality, each nightstand features a convenient top drawer and a spacious lower compartment, closed by a door and containing an interior shelf. Their generous dimensions and excellent proportions
