Marcelle Ladeuil, the Odyssey, Gouache And Illumination, 1925, Beaux-arts, First Prize In Illuminat

450 EUR

Signature : Marcelle Ladeuil (1895-1983)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gouache

Length : 16 cm

Height : 20,3 cm

Description

Marcelle Ladeuil (1895-1983)The Odyssey 1925Gouache on paper, work exhibited at the Académie des Beaux-Arts in Paris.Roux Competition:First Prize in Illumination: a frontispiece for *The Odyssey*Label on the backDimensions: With frame (missing pieces): 45.5 x 34.8 cmGouache: 20.3 x 16 cmMarcelle Ladeuil (full name Marie Couronne Gabrielle Jeanne Marcelle Ladeuil, 1895-1983) was a French painter and draftswoman. Although she is primarily known for her modern oil landscapes, mixed-media works, and watercolors depicting woodlands or seascapes, she also distinguished herself in the art of miniatures and illumination, participating in art exhibitions (notably at the Marcel Bernheim Gallery in the 1920s) where her work in this demanding field garnered attention.

Dealer

Edouard Cattagni Antiquités
Arts décoratifs - Beaux Arts
Tel : 06 33 45 75 89

Proche du métro sentier
Paris 75002