Description

An elegant pair of gilded bronze candlesticks, signed by Victor Raulin (1867-1925), a master French bronze artist, dating from the late 19th century. In the Louis XV Rocaille style, they feature superb, undulating shafts shaped like twisted plant stems, adorned with finely chiseled foliage and topped with flower-shaped finials. The openwork bases, richly decorated with volutes and Rocaille motifs, showcase fine casting and chiseling. Signed "RAULIN" on the underside of the base.Beautiful craftsmanship and elegant gilding with an antique patina.Height: 17 cm
