Description

A Carrara marble sculpture depicting The Child with the Cage, based on the famous masterpiece by Jean-Baptiste Pigalle (1714-1785).This graceful sculpture depicts a young, nude child sitting on a rock, gazing with tenderness and surprise at the bird that has just escaped from its cage. This iconic 18th-century work is distinguished by the delicate realism of the chubby flesh typical of early childhood.The original marble sculpture is now housed at the Louvre Museum.Very fine craftsmanship and excellent condition.Signed on the base: J. Pigalle
