19th-century Empire-era Porcelain Pitcher From Paris

280 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Width : 16cm

Height : 27,5cm

Description

Large Empire-style pitcher made of Paris porcelain. The white porcelain is accented with gold, and the base of the spout is shaped like a head. There are two small chips on the rim (about 1 cm) and a chip under the lid. The base is slightly warped but remains stable; this is most likely a firing defect. Height: 27.5 cmWidth: 16 cm
