typical of emeralds, they reinforce their authentic character and attest to their terrestrial origin.A diamond setting that adds a delicate sparkle without ever overshadowing the center stone.An openwork bezel that allows maximum light to pass through, showcasing meticulous luxury craftsmanship.The daisy setting owes its name to the tender interplay of its petals--"he loves me, a little, a lot, passionately...". Since the 18th century, French jewelers have made it a symbol of declared love: the center stone represents the heart, and the diamonds represent petals that can never be plucked away. A definitive answer, set in gold.Features18K two-tone gold (750 ?)Certified hallmark: eagle's head and master's markFaceted emerald in an oval cut, dimensions 0.5 cm x 0.7 cmEstimated weight of the emerald: approximately 0.70 caratsSetting: 4 prongs10 modern-cut diamonds, prong-set:2 diamonds at the ends, 0.10 ct each (? 3 mm)8 diamonds, 0.06 ct each (? 2.5 mm)Total weight of the diamonds: ? 0.68 ctTotal weight of the ring: 6.40 gSize: 50.5 (inner diameter 16 mm)Setting dimensions: 1.2 cm wide x 1.5 cm highCondition: excellent
