Description

An important, richly carved walnut throne chair in the Neo-Renaissance style, dating from the second half of the 19th century.This remarkable piece features an architecturally designed high backrest, topped by an imposing, stepped molded cornice.The carved decoration is particularly elaborate: foliage scrolls, mascarons, medallion busts, and ornamental motifs in high relief. The side posts are adorned with carved figures, and the armrests rest on magnificent lions carved in the round.The lower section forms a storage chest that opens beneath the seat, with a front panel featuring carved panels and beautiful decorative ironwork.The piece as a whole showcases abundant sculptural detail and a striking architectural presence.Beautiful walnut patina.A piece with character, particularly decorative, ideal
