PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Lucien Victor Delpy (1898-1967) Hst "bustling Port," Brittany

2 600 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Oil on canvas, signed lower left, depicting a horse-drawn cart in a harbor, likely Concarneau. Canvas dimensions: 65x54 cm He enrolled at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris in 1914 and wasa student of Fernand Cormon and Jean Pierre Laurens; then, after volunteeringduring World War I, he returned to Cormon's studio in 1919and worked with Charles Fouqueray before setting up a studio inMontmartre in 1923. In 1924, he discovered Brittany, which would have a lasting influence on hiswork. He exhibited at the Salon desArtistes Français and received numerous awards there, including a medal in1927 as well as several prizes for his "colonial" works. Appointed painter to the Navy in 1931 andpainter to the Armed Forces in 1945, he is best known today for hislandscapes of Finistère and maritime

Dealer

Galerie Erce
Paintings and Works on Paper - Brittany (19th and 20th century)
Tel : 06 87 51 17 26

Paris 75017

themes. His paintings feature prominentlyin public collections.