Description

These are not a pair, but rather two beautiful armchairs with similar symbolism. In fact, both feature a design incorporating peaches of longevity. One (1), slightly smaller and darker, made of Hongmu wood, features a backrest carved with a bat and peaches of longevity. The armrests are carved in the shape of stylized Greek frets. The second (2), slightly taller and crafted from several types of wood--Hongmu, Jichimu, and others (possibly Zitan and Huanghuali)--features an openwork backrest decorated with a burst peach of longevity and stylized clouds. The armrests are decorated with leaves and fruits, some of which are openwork. Condition: The undersides of the seats have been reinforced on each of the armchairs. The armchair with the bat (1) has some minor cracks in the
