Japanese-style Display Cabinet Attributed To Gabriel Viardo

3 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

ATTRIBUTED TO GABRIEL VIARDOT (1830-1906), DISPLAY CABINET.Dimensions: 178/72/33 cmAn elegant asymmetrical cabinet made of carved and stained natural wood, topped with a pagoda against a red background and a gilded bronze chimera. The front opens with a door adorned with rich high-relief decoration inlaid with bone and stained mother-of-pearl, depicting a bird on a branch of a flowering plum tree. The central drawer is adorned with a unique gilded bronze knob depicting a Minogame turtle, flanked by butterfly inlays. The lower crossbars feature a characteristic Chinese dragon mascaron and rest on curved feet with scroll motifs.

Dealer

Antik.Salon

Antique and vintage furniture

Tel : +33658137757

Mobile : +33662102880

Saint-Hippolyte-de-Montaigu 30700