Large Polychrome Earthenware Dish With Sun Motifs, Manises, Spain, 19th Century

140 EUR

Period : 19th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Earthenware
Diameter : 33 cm

Description

A large circular dish made of Spanish earthenware from Manises, featuring a hand-painted polychrome decoration in the Hispano-Moorish style.The central panel is adorned with a stylized landscape composed of architectural elements and vegetation, surrounded by a wide, compartmentalized border alternating between fantastical birds and anthropomorphic sun motifs. The piece features a characteristic color palette of cobalt blue, yellow, green, and ochre, accented with fine brown lines.Marked A.S. Francisco Arenes, Manises, circa 1870-1898.Original condition, with chips and missing enamel around the rim, as well as signs of wear consistent with the piece's age.Diameter: 33 cm.

Dealer

Ostade Antiques
Brussels based antique dealer specialised in 18th and 19th century antiques
Mobile : +32 486251211

Bruxelles 1030