Description

Important Tuscan wardrobe in white poplar, dating from the late 18th century, featuring three doors, each divided into three rectangular panels. The piece retains a beautiful original patina in warm honey-blonde tones, highlighting the natural grain and character of the wood. The structure is completed by a projecting cornice and a simple base with side feet. The wardrobe retains all its original elements, including the back, hinges and interior shelves, and remains structurally intact. It originates from a farmhouse in the Siena area.Origin: Tuscany, Siena area, late 18th centuryDimensions: 260 × 60 cm, height 240 cm
