Description

A charming ink drawing depicting a Tunisian landscape, created by Albert Marquet, a great 20th-century French painter and a major figure of Fauvism.The work depicts a simplified landscape; just a few delicate and precise strokes are enough to evoke the terrain, the dwellings, and the figures, demonstrating the artist's keen sense of observation and spontaneity.This drawing bears a brass plaque inscribed with "Albert Marquet - Landscape of Tunisia." It is presented in a beautiful antique frame with a polychrome patina, which perfectly highlights the authentic character and charm of this work.An interesting example of this artist's work on paper; he is particularly renowned for his landscapes and his travels around the Mediterranean basin.The piece is in very good condition, with a very minor
