Description

A very elegant double-sided Art Deco-style desk, crafted from Macassar ebony, notable for its magnificent flamed grain with shades of brown and black.It features a geometric and perfectly balanced design, characteristic of Art Deco furniture from the 1930s. Its rectangular top with clean lines rests on two substantial side cabinets with recessed bases, connected by a central panel that opens to reveal a drawer.The opposite side offers a beautiful, functional layout with two side doors revealing storage spaces, as well as a set of four drawers on the right side.The piece captivates with the richness of its Macassar ebony, the quality of its grain, and the elegance of its proportions. Its double-sided design allows it to be displayed equally well as the centerpiece of a room or in a refined workspace.A truly
