Description

Large olive spoon made of solid silver. The long, plain handle, which flares slightly, ends in a rounded spatula.The oval bowl is outlined along its rim by a double molded fillet, which does not extend onto the handle. It features a delicate pierced and engraved design: a regular central pattern of quatrefoils and navettes, surrounded by vine branches, leaves, and grape clusters. A large stylized palmette adorns its upper end. A solid oval medallion accentuates the base of the spoon headHallmarks of the City of LORIENT, circa 1753-1754 by CORDE Pierre-Hyacinthe, admitted in 1753Period: Louis XVPlace of manufacture:Date: 1753-1754Material: solid silverLength: 30 cmWidth: 5.5 cmWeight: 133 g
