Description

A charming little oval hardstone cameo, slightly curved, depicting a female profile turned to the right, in the neoclassical style.The face, finely carved in relief from a light-colored material, stands out against a translucent gray-brown background. The abundant hair, held in place by a wreath of foliage, is particularly well-crafted, as are the folds of the garment.A lovely small piece with pronounced relief and delicate carving.Condition: Good overall condition. Fine lines with a cracked appearance are visible in the stone, particularly on the bust and the background. They are not perceptible to the touch. Visible natural marks and inclusions.Dimensions:Height: 2.8 cmWidth: 1.6 cmPeriod: Late 18th-early 19th century, circa 1800.Shipping and payment: Fast and careful
