Silver-plated Crown Of The Virgin Mary With Colored Glass - Spain (?) - Early 20th Century

250 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : En l'etat

Diameter : 9,9 cm

Height : 18 cm

Description

A former crown from a religious statue, likely intended for a statue of the Virgin Mary, made of silver-plated metal and adorned with engraved plant motifs and openwork fleurons.Four arches edged with metal beads converge on a globe surmounted by a fleur-de-lis cross. The piece is embellished with colored glass stones in red, green, blue, and purple.A handwritten inscription engraved on the inside of the band reads "Recuerdo de Rosita ... ," followed by a name that is difficult to decipher and the date March 17, 1902. This inscription in Spanish suggests a memento or a dedication.No hallmark identified.Condition: Good vintage condition, with patina, wear on the silver plating, and oxidation. A few stones are missing. The globe's mounting system is incomplete (missing screw).

Dealer

Histoire & curiosités
Antiquités
Mobile : 0611329750

Grande rue - Le Chateau
La Marche 58400

See photographs.Dimensions:Base diameter: 9.9 cmTotal height: approximately 18 cmPeriod: Early 20th century, inscription dated 1902. Probably Spanish in origin.Shipping and payment: Fast and careful shipping within France and the European Union. For destinations outside the European Union, shipping costs are provided upon request. Payment by check issued in metropolitan France only, bank transfer, or PayPal.