18th-century Chinese Canton Porcelain Plate With A Lake-scene Design

150 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 24 cm

Height : 2.5 cm

Description

18th-century Chinese Canton porcelain plate with a lakeside designA true historical artifact, this plate dates from 18th-century China during the reign of Emperor Qianlong of the Qing Dynasty and features a lakeside motif of ducks, plants, and a body of water.Entirely handmade, this plate was part of a service intended for the tables of wealthy 18th-century Europeans. Crafted in China's Canton (Guangzhou) province, it bears the hallmark style of Chinese export porcelain.In excellent overall condition, this plate has survived for over 250 years to radiate its beauty and tell its story: that of the porcelain trade between Asia and Europe in the 18th century, making it ideal for today's collectors.Fast and careful shipping to France, Europe, and worldwide.Dimensions-> Height: 2.5 cm-> Diameter: 24 cm-> Weight: 400

Dealer

l'Antochine

Antiquities from XVIIth to XXth century, Religious Art & Asian Arts

Mobile : 0783636220

La Ferté-Saint-Aubin 45240

grams