PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Jacob Desmalter - Large Frame-mounted Bergère Chair - Gondola Style, With Dolphins - Empire Con

5 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Restauré par notre atelier

Material : Mahogany

Description

On display in Paris. Free shipping within France and to neighboring countries. Contact us for the rest of Europe and the rest of the world. Bergère Mahogany and mahogany veneer on beechDimensions: H. 89; Seat height 43; W. 62; D. 53 (cm)Paris, circa 1800-1805 A significant Consulate-period bergère in mahogany, resting on four Etruscan-style legs. Armrest supports very finely carved with dolphins. Armrests with padded cuffs. Seat with feather-quilted upholstery on a beechwood slatted frame. Although unstamped, this model is characteristic of the workshop of the Jacob brothers and later of Jacob père et fils. Notable examples include: - the mahogany "bedroom" furniture of Queen Hortense, now at Arenenberg Castle in Switzerland - the mahogany furniture from the

Dealer

Schoppmann Art and Antiques

Mobilier, objets d'art et décoration

Mobile : 0666629452

838 chemin de la Lauve

Saint-Raphaël 83700

Countess d'Osmond's grand salon in her Parisian mansion - the painted and gold-leafed furniture from Grand Marshal Duroc's bedroom at the Tuileries Palace Condition Report: In excellent condition, with the original armrests, backrest, and cushion; fully restored and reupholstered with a wool fabric from the Manufacture Royale Bonvallet, featuring applied braids sewn onto the surface. Previous restorations due to normal wear and tear.