Description

Elegant and majestic, this Louis XV style Carrara marble fireplace is a true work of art, a symbol of refinement and exceptional craftsmanship. Originating from a prestigious estate in Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat, this unique 20th-century piece perfectly embodies the timeless elegance and understated luxury of the French Riviera. Its white marble, enhanced by fine gray veins, showcases exquisitely sculpted details. The richly carved pediment is adorned with delicately crafted floral motifs, while the gracefully curved uprights feature elegant scrolls typical of the Louis XV style. Its generous mantel, with its flowing lines, adds a touch of grace and balance to the whole, making it a prestigious centerpiece for any refined interior. The cast-iron interior, adorned with fleur-de-lis motifs, underscores its
