PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Pair Of Louis XVI-style Wall Sconces. 19th Century.

4 400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 25 cm

Height : 41 cm

Description

A pair of two-armed wall sconces in chiseled and gilded bronze depicting cupids blowing horns.The sconces are adorned with acanthus leaves, rosettes, and ribbon bows, and feature a pine cone at the bottom.Based on a 1787 design by Jean Hauré, a sculptor and master foundryman who had been in charge of the Crown Furniture since 1784, commissioned for the Château de Saint-Cloud.One example is in the Victoria and Albert Museum in London.Reference: "Vergoldete Bronzen" by H. Ottomeyer and P. Proschel. Munich: 1986 (288).France.19th century.In good condition.Dimensions:Height: 41 cmWidth: 25 cm

Dealer

Antiquités Arnaud Catel

Antiquités et objets d'art

Mobile : +33 (0)6 74 29 84 33

Marché Biron Galerie 58 - Allée 1, 85 rue des rosiers

Saint-Ouen 93400