Modern Painting Signed Saverio Barbaro The Two Olive Trees 1964

930 EUR

Signature : Saverio Barbaro

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 80

Height : 100

Depth : 6

Description

Oil on canvas. Signed, titled, and dated on the reverse. Also includes a label indicating participation in the 15th edition of the Triveneta Art Biennial in Padua.From the Campari corporate collection.An eclectic artist, Saverio Barbaro discovered the Mediterranean and Middle Eastern worlds and cultures through his travels and was "influenced" by them.As a painter, he found in the landscapes of the East and the Maghreb a constant and rich source of inspiration for his artistic work: Berber dwellings, the vegetation of desert landscapes, and the figures of the inhabitants of these distant lands--portrayed with just a few strokes of line and color--have served as an inexhaustible source of inspiration for a body of work that has prioritized a love of travel and exotic places.His

Dealer

Di Mano in Mano
Antiquités
Mobile : +39 3333273611

Viale Espinasse 97-99
Milano 20156

color palette is extraordinarily rich and intense, featuring unusual combinations that linger long in the memory. The composition of his paintings is characterized by extreme simplification and a great ability to capture the essence of what is depicted.The work is presented in a frame.ARARCO0326985