Description

Art Deco carved wooden panel depicting a seascape featuring an octopus, fish, coral, and marine plants. Set in an oak frame. The grille is made of metal, while the seascape is carved from wood and features a bronze-colored patina. Probably originally created as a decorative panel to adorn a speaker or radiator. Can be placed on a surface or hung on the wall. A one-of-a-kind work of art. In its original condition, with two small missing pieces that are practically invisible.
