PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Anthropomorphic Towel Rack, Wall-mounted, Black Forest Fruit Tree Wood

785 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 85

Height : 80

Description

Traditional 19th-century cabinetmaking, somewherein the legendary Black Forest.A good-natured,friendly fellow has been smiling at us for several centuries; he steadfastly fulfills his roleas a towel rack.Wearing a soft felt hat that sits atop his medieval tonsure,he is clad in a shirt and a jacket with a wide collar, adorned withmonoxyl laurel leaves. Perhaps he is a caricature of a jesterfrom the Teutonic royal court? An object with a strong presence that is very rare.Also sometimes called a "wall-passing figure"

Dealer

Complément d'objets

sciences, ethnical, naturalia, artificialia, didactical items, curiosities

Tel :

Mobile : 00 32 477 450 595

Wemmel 1780