19th-century Mahogany Table/desk With A Fold-down Front In The Canabas Style

1 580 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

Mahogany writing desk, in the style of Joseph Gengenbach, known as Canabas - 19th centuryElegant 19th-century mahogany writing desk, crafted in the style of Joseph Gengenbach, known as Canabas (1715-1797). The simplicity of its lines, the beauty of the wood, and the understated decoration evoke the refined spirit of this 18th-century cabinetmaker's furniture.Its rectangular top, edged with a brass molding, highlights the warm grain of the mahogany. A wide, belt-style drawer with a drop-down front reveals a writing surface upholstered in green leather with a gold-edged border.Four tapered square-section legs support the piece. They are joined by a crossbar with a wide central cutout, accented with brass and adorned with a delicate openwork rail.Brass plates on the legs, a

Dealer

Leleu Antiquités
Généraliste
Mobile : 0607415540

Varreddes 77910

decorative keyhole, and roller feet complete this understated ornamentation.A charming parlor piece, both practical and decorative, whose proportions also allow it to serve as a small desk.Period: 19th century.In the style of: Joseph Gengenbach, known as Canabas; not attributed to a specific cabinetmaker.Materials: mahogany, brass, and leather.Dimensions: length 82 cm × depth 49 cm × height 76 cm.DELIVERY ONLY IN PARIS AND THE ÎLE-DE-FRANCE REGION FOR 120.00 EUROSFor delivery to other locations, please provide your ZIP code and city so I can make a request with the carriers