Description

Decorative Wooden PropellerThis wooden propeller consists of two twisted blades. They are narrow at the base, near the central hub, flare out widely in the middle to create maximum lift, and end in a slender, smooth and roundedThe flamboyant, undulating lines of the wood grain are clearly visible along the entire length of the blades, a testament to the use of solid woodIt features a warm, glossy finish, with a vintage, weathered lookOn the hub is a copper plaque bearing the inscription "To The Waterlooville RAFA Club Victoria from G. Turner & friends from Newbury"It is therefore a gift to the Waterlooville RAFA Club Victoria, a branch of the Royal Air Forces Association in the United KingdomRoyal Air Forces Association (RAFA) clubs were established in large numbers
