Pierre Favre

Born in 1906, Pierre Favre is a prominent 20th-century painter known for his landscapes, hiscity scenes, and his seascapes.He frequently depicted Paris(notably the Seine, the bridges,and the Île de la Cité), but alsolandscapes of the South of France such as Cassis and Marseille. Hisworks are primarilycreated in three mediums: watercolor(often enhanced with ink or charcoal), gouache on paper, and oil painting on canvas. In his depictions of the cathedral, Pierre Favre adopts a style typical of the mid- 20th century, tinged with Fauvism or a structured Post-Impressionism with a color palette that balances soft watercolor tones.
