Cassina, originally Amedeo Cassina, was founded by brothers Cesare (1909-1979) and Umberto (1910-1992) Cassina in 1927 in Meda, Italy. Although the factory initially specialized in creating custom-made wooden furniture and high-end interiors, the two brothers decided in the 1950s to take a different direction, anticipating the surge in demand for mass-produced furniture. Cassina therefore holds the undisputed credit for introducing industrial design to Italy, collaborating with some of the world's most successful designers.This piece, like all of our other items, will be sold with a certificate of authenticity.We personally handle and arrange the packaging and shipping of our works of art, with insurance, worldwide
