Description

This piece is very similar to another one I recently featured on proantic... Like those from major manufacturers such as Darte or Pouyat-Russinger, here is a very pretty "litron"-shaped cup. Made of white porcelain, it is decorated--as is its saucer--with gold plant motifs and flowers arranged in a slightly more random pattern. Unfortunately, there's no signature... though it's surely from a major manufacturer! Very good overall condition, no chips or flaws. A bit of wear on the gold of one flower on the saucer. Clearly visible in my detailed photos. Please look at them carefully--I'm not hiding anything! French craftsmanship--a beautiful antique porcelain piece dating from the very late 18th or very early 19th century, during the Directoire or Consulate periods. Dimensions:
