Description

A charming pair of small paintings on canvas depicting two scenes with Mediterranean flair, rendered in the romantic and picturesque style of the 19th century.The first painting depicts an elegant residence with classical architecture, featuring beautiful arcades and a gallery opening onto the sea. In the foreground, a monumental fountain stands at the heart of a meticulously landscaped garden, while a monk contemplates the coastal landscape.The second composition depicts a group of monks in monastic robes, gathered on a terrace overlooking the coastline. The scene unfolds in a Mediterranean setting, dotted with vegetation, architectural ruins, and a view of the sea in the distance.Both works captivate with their peaceful atmosphere, soft tones, and compositions that evoke a love of
