émile Balon - Blois - Polychrome Earthenware Water Bottle With A Crowned Porcupine - 1909

290 EUR

Signature : Émile Balon

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Width : 12,5 cm

Height : 15,5. cm

Description

A charming pilgrim's flask made of polychrome earthenware from Blois, with a flattened body and three necks, crafted in the Renaissance style.One side features a beautiful design of a crowned porcupine--the emblem of King Louis XII--surrounded by rich Renaissance-style scrollwork, foliage, and arabesques.Beautiful polychrome coloring combining cobalt blue, turquoise blue, orange-yellow, and white--characteristic of decorative ware from Blois.The piece is adorned with four small side loops and a hanging cord.On the reverse, a handwritten signature reading "Ulysse Blois - E. Balon Succr," accompanied by the workshop's monogram and the date 1909.Work from the studio of Émile Balon, successor to Ulysse Besnard in Blois, in the early 20th century.A

Dealer

Jonathan Marchal
Asian art, Antiques and collectibles
Tel : 0033 6 18527595

Paris 75001

lovely collector's piece, particularly decorative due to its unusual shape with three openings and the delicacy of its heraldic decoration.Period: 1909 - Early 20th century.Origin: Blois, France.Manufacturer: Émile Balon Workshop.Material: Polychrome glazed earthenware.Dimensions:Height: 15.5 cmWidth: 12.5 cmCondition: Appears to be in good overall condition, with a few slight signs of wear.