émile Balon - Blois - Polychrome Earthenware Ring-handled Jug With A Salamander - 1909

290 EUR

Signature : Émile Balon

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

A very pretty ring-shaped flask made of polychrome Blois earthenware, crafted in the Renaissance style, featuring a rich heraldic design with a crowned salamander, the emblem of King Francis I.Circular in shape with an openwork center, this elegant flask displays a beautiful polychrome palette combining orange-yellow, turquoise blue, black, and white.The central design depicts the royal salamander surrounded by flames, surmounted by a fleur-de-lis crown, all accompanied by rich Renaissance foliage and arabesques.The upper part is adorned with a decorated stopper neck, while four small side loops accommodate a hanging cord.On the reverse, a handwritten signature reading "Ulysse Blois - E. Balon Succr," accompanied by the workshop's monogram and the date 1909.Work

Dealer

Jonathan Marchal
Asian art, Antiques and collectibles
Tel : 0033 6 18527595

Paris 75001

from the Émile Balon workshop, successor to Ulysse Besnard in Blois, in the early 20th century.A particularly decorative collector's piece, characteristic of the revival of Renaissance-style earthenware in Blois.Period: 1909 - Early 20th century.Origin: Blois, France.Workshop: Émile Balon.Material: Polychrome glazed earthenware.Dimensions:Height: 16.5 cmWidth: 12 cmCondition: Appears to be in good overall condition, with a few slight signs of age.