Description

A set of four vintage chairs from the 1950s-1960s, featuring a frame made of exotic wood that has been turned to create a bamboo-like effect. This distinctive design is further enhanced by brass accents at the joints, which add a touch of elegance and sturdiness. The seat, made of foam, is upholstered in a light-colored fabric that provides a refined contrast to the dark wood. The chairs have been completely restored, both in terms of the woodwork and the upholstery, ensuring not only a flawless appearance but also optimal functionality. Ideal for spaces that aim to combine a retro aesthetic with high-quality elements.MOSESE0329805
