PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Bronze Sculpture Depicting Bossuet

6 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Length : 29,5 cm

Width : 20 cm

Height : 48cm

Description

Bronze on a gilded bronze pedestalBased on the statue on display at the LOUVRE, by Jacques-Bénigne Bossuet, created by Augustin Pajou (1730-1809)--a famous full-length sculpture completed in 1779.It is part of the prestigious official commission for the "Great Men of France," initiated by the Count of Angivillers under Louis XVI to honor the country's illustrious figures.Jacques-Bénigne Bossuet, more commonly known as Bossuet and nicknamed the "Eagle of Meaux," born on September 27, 1627, in Dijon and died on April 12, 1704, in Paris, was a French clergyman, bishop, preacher, and writer.

Dealer

Galerie Conte antiquites

Objets & Mobilier d'Art depuis 1966

Tel : + 33 (0) 1 42 60 18 62

Mobile : + 33 (0) 6 73 188 157

Paris 75007