Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

An elegant oval box made of solid silver, with the lid richly decorated with exquisitely detailed relief work. The lid depicts a group of three winged cupids floating on clouds. In the center, a cherub plays the lyre; to his left, another (Cupid) holds an arrow, and the third holds a garland of flowers. This central medallion stands out against a sumptuously guilloché fan-shaped background (sunbeams). Together, these elements create a romantically rendered scene of exquisite craftsmanship.This beautiful box is in very good condition and opens and closes perfectly. The interior retains a beautiful gold finish (vermeil). Two "woodworm" hallmarks (indicating sterling silver) are present on the inner rim.Dimensions: 6.9 x 5.2 cm.Weight: 59 grams.Shipped with an invoice--fast, carefully packaged, and very
