Description

A beautiful double-digit wedding bedspread. It bears the initials J-R, embroidered in plumetis and padded bourdon stitches, among other cordonnet stitches. The piece features an elaborate floral design consisting largely of fleur-de-lis motifs. The fabric is both dense and supple; the distinct initials and embroidery, along with the finely executed artistic crochet lace, attest to the exceptional quality of this piece--which was once an essential part of late 19th-century trousseaus. Antique English cotton piqué (plain piqué) linen, washed and ironed.
